PERSONAL INFORMATION

IT Design Manager from Delhi(India) and currently based in Mumbai. I love Designing and have been designing for corporates for the past 6+ years. In that span I have matured as a designer & have understood the vast demands of the clients. I believe in doing my work with utmost sincerity & making sure that I deliver it timely.

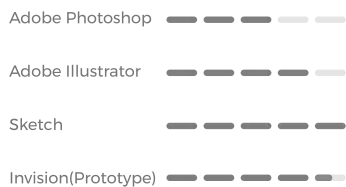

I am ready for visiting other countries & work for any Design studio. I love working with people specially if they share the same passion I have what they do.
