I am a Product Design student studying in 4th year at MAEER's MIT Institute Of Design, Pune. I am looking for 6 months internship. As a designer I strongly believe that designers have power to bringing drastic changes in everything. I insist on using resources wisely and hence I support and practice upcycling and recycling in daily life as well. Very passionate and enthusiastic about exploring and learning process. Interacting with people inspires me and I try to make impact of that learning on my projects.
